New York, NY – January 11th-12th, 2020 – Peridance Capezio Center is proud to present its 10th annual APAP at Peridance showcase at the Salvatore Capezio Theater. The production will include a stunning program presented during the 2020 Association of Performing Arts Professionals Conference in New York City.

With over 30 years of experience in the dance arena, Peridance carefully curates its program to reflect the artistic excellence; creativity, diversity and audience appeal presenters are looking for. This year's program features some of New York's most notable voices in contemporary dance, including:

APAP at Peridance in the News

"The APAP showcase at Peridance acts as a tasting menu with companies spotlighting excerpts and shorter compositions to wet the appetite of presenters and audience members alike." – Cecly Placenti, The Dance Enthusiast

"The APAP Showcases at Peridance were nothing short of a beautiful dream which introduced me to several companies whom I'm looking forward to following in the future. Both my guest and I were just stunned by the consistently amazing quality and variety of dance that we saw." – Wet Paint Journal

"[The APAP Showcase at Salvatore Capezio Theater] was well worth attending, leaving us impressed with a number of choreographers, dancers and companies."

– Justine Bayod Espoz, The Wonderful World of Dance
